FAMOUS PERSONALITY TYPES

Think you're unique like a snowflake? Think again...

Chances are, your personality is similar to one of the sixteen types defined by Carl Jung and Isabel Briggs Myers. Their test, often referred to as the Myers Briggs test, measures different personality traits to determine how you fit within the four-letter code system.

Estimated Frequencies of the Types in the US Population

FAMOUS PROTECTORS (SJ)

ESTJ

OVERSEER

ESTJs live in a world of facts and concrete needs. They live in the present, with their eye constantly scanning their personal environment to make sure that everything is running smoothly and systematically.

ESFJ

SUPPORTER

ESFJs are people persons - they love people. They are warmly interested in others. They use their Sensing and Judging characteristics to gather specific, detailed information about others, and turn this information into supportive judgments.

ISTJ

EXAMINER

ISTJs are very loyal, faithful, and dependable. They place great importance on honesty and integrity. They are "good citizens" who can be depended on to do the right thing for their families and communities.

ISFJ

DEFENDER

ISFJs have a rich inner world that is not usually obvious to observers. They constantly take in information about people and situations that is personally important to them, and store it away.

FAMOUS CREATORS (SP)

ESTP

PERSUADER

Enthusiastic and excitable, ESTPs are "doers" who live in the world of action. Blunt, straight-forward risk-takers, they are willing to plunge right into things and get their hands dirty.

ESFP

ENTERTAINER

For the ESFP, the entire world is a stage. They love to be the center of attention and perform for people. They're constantly putting on a show for others to entertain them and make them happy.

ISTP

CRAFTSMAN

ISTPs can see the easiest and most expedient route to completing a task, and they do not waste their effort on unnecessary things. They often act as trouble shooters, rising to meet the needs of the occasion.

ISFP

ARTIST

ISFPs live in the world of sensation possibilities. They are keenly in tune with the way things look, taste, sound, feel and smell. They have a strong aesthetic appreciation for art, and are likely to be artists in some form.
